Feedback Digest for

ADRIAN LLEWELYN-EVANS

As a Mediator of over ten years experience, Adrian has many testimonials.

Feedback

The following is a sample of recent feedback from parties or their lawyers:

- “Adrian’s approach simply couldn’t be faulted. This was an extremely difficult and long running dispute. My client didn’t hold out any prospect of settling so they were tremendously surprised when it did. Adrian handled everything very well. He was actually recommended to me by someone who said Adrian was very diplomatic, quick to grasp issues – a high calibre mediator, which was a correct assessment in my view. My clients were delighted with him.”
- “Adrian was excellent. He was polished and appropriate at all times. He knew how to calm people down and got to grip with issues quickly. I have actually recommended him to someone else already. Top notch.”
- “I think Adrian was excellent. Very patient and constructive all the way through. I must admit I didn’t expect this to settle, and it was mainly thanks to him that it did. I would definitely use him again”
- “I thought Adrian was very good and he was actually recommended to me. He prepared very thoroughly and negotiated very hard. He had a complete grasp of all the issues. He was thorough and firm but fair. I would absolutely be happy to use him again”
- “Thank you for your considerable efforts in steering us towards a successful mediation. The members of our team who were new to mediation were very complementary about your efforts and style. Those of us who had worked with you before were not of course surprised at all.”

The Mediation Chambers

- “I just wanted to add a note of personal thanks to you for your efforts yesterday. You have been the most effective commercial mediator I have encountered-your reputation is well founded.”
- “I write to thank you properly for all your efforts in resolving what appeared to be a completely intractable problem. Both my clients commented very favourably on your bedside manner, and the way in which you steered the whole affair towards a resolution”

Themes emerging from the feedback:

“Polished and faultless with an ability to settle disputes which look incapable of resolution. An extremely effective mediator.”

Recommended by Legal 500 and Chambers Guide to the Legal Profession for dispute resolution and mediation:

"A class of his own; very efficient, gets a quick grip on complex commercial matters, and above all else a smooth mediator."

"Solicitors would happily trust him with the most complex and intricate matters."

"At the top of the tree for mediation in the West Country."

"Enjoying a stellar reputation. High quality, modern thinker."

"His indefatigable attitude and ability to home in on the issues and disregard the irrelevancies are hugely prized."
