

IN PLACE OF STRIFE

The Mediation Chambers

Charles Flint QC, FCI Arb

Charles Flint is a commercial barrister and CEDR-accredited mediator (1999) who mediates commercial disputes, primarily in the banking and financial services field. He is rated by Chambers 2011 as the leading barrister in financial services law.

Charles leads the mediation group at Blackstone Chambers. He has been a keen exponent of mediation for many years. He brings to his field his knowledge of the financial markets and has acted as mediator in a number of substantial financial services and banking disputes, both in the UK and overseas. He has also acted as an early neutral evaluator appointed by the Commercial Court. Charles also mediates in the following areas:

- Banking
- Employment
- Financial services and markets regulation
- Insurance
- Professional negligence
- Public Law and Human Rights
- Sports

Described in Chambers UK 2010 as having “an unflappable demeanour and admirable attention to detail.” and “a lawyer of great sophistication”

“Tough but never alienating,” Flint is respected by clients for always being prepared to provide his view on an issue when needed.

A “big hitter who is really out ahead”, he has a “comprehensive knowledge of financial services law that extends to fully understanding the rationale behind the legislation.”

“An impressive track record” in sports related matters.