

IN PLACE OF STRIFE

The Mediation Chambers

Lawrence Kershen QC

Regarded as a highly experienced and effective mediator of commercial disputes, Lawrence Kershen was accredited by CEDR in 1994. His expertise covers a range of disputes in a variety of sectors with a 'great track record'.

With over 30 years experience as a barrister, his understanding of law and litigation helps the negotiation and problem solving process towards a successful outcome. Parties consistently report high rates of satisfaction and success.

Lawrence is a Leader at the Bar in ADR and has been described in glowing terms by the Chambers Guide. His experience includes:

- Defamation/Confidentiality-premier league football club & national newspaper, price sensitive confidential information.
- Finance – bank private equity division, pension fund, investment company.
- Inheritance – beneficiaries, family land, removal of executors.
- Intellectual Property – TV channel, film production, engineering software.
- Mechanical engineering – hydrocarbon contamination, automotive fuel pipes, sponge-making machinery.
- Partnership/shareholders – property and construction, pharmaceuticals joint venture, minority shareholdings.
- Personal injury/insurance – fatal accident at motorcycle racing circuit, train collision, dentist work-related illness.
- Professional negligence – investment advisors, actuaries, solicitors, barristers and other commercial contracts.

Lawrence worked as a barrister, sat as a Recorder of the Crown Court, and was appointed QC in 1992. His litigation experience includes commercial contracts and tort as well as complex and large-scale criminal cases.

Lawrence has led training programmes in the UK, Europe and Asia and is qualified as a trainer of communication skills including Neuro Linguistic Programming and Non-Violent Communication. He is on the board of the Restorative Justice Consortium.

"Humble and self-effacing, yet incredibly knowledgeable and effective"

"You don't even know he's in the room, but he is always directing proceedings"

"Superb interpersonal skills"

"Respected for his skill and seniority"

"An extremely relaxed, calm and authoritative approach"

Chambers Guide to the Legal Profession 2002-2008