

IN PLACE OF STRIFE

The Mediation Chambers

Tony Willis LLB FCI Arb

Former senior solicitor and (since 2004) barrister, Tony Willis has now conducted more than 800 mediations as well as advising on dispute resolution mechanisms and solutions. Mediations have involved a wide variety of issues including:

- Insolvency
- Charity
- IT
- Tax
- Regulatory
- Construction
- Boardroom disputes
- Oil and gas
- Partnership
- Professional negligence
- Employment
- Family trusts and inheritance
- Insurance and reinsurance

Tony mediates in the UK and elsewhere including New York, Belgium, Romania and Dubai. Parties have included Governments and UK Government departments such as the Home Office, Ministry of Defence, HM Revenue and Customs and DEFRA. He has consistently ranked at the top of the list of mediators in the Legal 500 and Chambers Guide.

Tony joined Coward Chance in 1970, was made litigation partner in 1973, then joint managing partner from 1987-89 before becoming head of the litigation practice until 1997.

He became an independent mediator in 1998 was called to the Bar by Middle Temple in October 2004. Fellow of the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators, Fellow of the International Academy of Mediators (US), Member of the International Panel of Distinguished Mediators of CPR (New York), Panel Member for the American Arbitration Association.

“One of the most sought-after mediators in the UK”

“If Willis is present, everyone pays attention”

“One of the masters”

“In a category of his own”

“Forceful and impressive”

“Delivers solutions and adds value”

Chambers Guide to the Legal Profession, 2006-08